Business Spotlight:

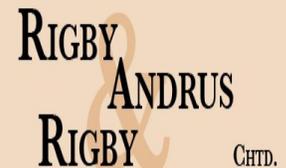

Ray Rigby was an Army Air Corps and WWII got over before he got to serve. So Ray came home to the Rexburg area and went to law school in Moscow Idaho. Following completing law school, Ray returned home and opened Ray Rigby Law Firm in Rexburg over 60 years ago. After many partners the current partners are Ray Rigby, Rich Andrus, & Jerry Rigby, thus the new name Rigby, Andrus & Rigby. They also have two associates Hyrum Erikson and Rob Wood.

Rigby, Andrus, & Rigby are a general practice law firm. They handle a lot of water law representing many irrigation districts and canal companies. But they also handle family law, criminal defense, small business formation, general business law, and personal injury law.

Rigby, Andrus, & Rigby share deep relationships with many in our area. They have many clients from Fremont County whom they've represented for decades, and their door is always open for new clients. They do have a heavy concentration of clients within Madison/Fremont because of irrigation, canals, and rural electric.

Their firm has extensive experience in representing their clients best interest; whether it be in business negotiation, family law mediation, or court room advocacy. They currently have the highest rating from Martindale Hubble which is an organization that rates lawyers and law firms! All the attorneys currently practicing in their firm are from southeastern Idaho, so they truly feel they have an understanding of the people and their needs.

So if you are in need of some council or a good lawyer; call Rigby, Andrus & Rigby at 208-356-3633 or visit their website at www.rex-law.com

City of Ashton News

City Council will be Wednesday, November 14th at 7pm at the City Building.

Thank You!

The Red Hats say, "Hats Off" to the organizers and the vendors for their time and work in bringing our own farmers market to Ashton. And a BIG "THANK YOU" to Dr. John Toenjes for providing the nice, clean, shady spot to have it. As far as we the customers are concerned it has been a huge success. We are all looking forward to next year!

Thank You!

A huge thank you to the community! On Saturday, October 20th over 1800 pounds of non-perishable food items were collected by the Boy Scouts and delivered to the North Fremont Food Pantry. Your generosity will help relieve food insecurity in the Ashton area for the coming months.
